See those strange clouds? Florence Huyler shaded her eyes to look away toward the horizon. Her face wore an expression of bewildered curiosity. Yes, I see them. They are queer! young Captain Davie, as everyone called him, replied as he wrinkled his brow. After giving the wheel of his motor-driven craft a turn, he studied those clouds. Scurrying along the horizon, he murmured, they roll quite a bit, don t they? Yes, and such a peculiar shade of yellow, Florence added. Oh well, clouds are different up here on Lake Superior. Nothing to worry about, I guess, said Dave, as once again he gave his attention to the wheel. As for Florence, at the moment she had nothing to do but think. And such bitter-sweet thoughts as they were! She was cruising on Lake Superior. That was grand! She had always loved the water. What was still more magnificent, she was landing twice a week on the shores of that place of great enchantment-Isle Royale. Once, you will recall from reading The Phantom Violin, Florence with two companions had made her summer home on a huge wrecked ship off the rocky shores of this very island. What a summer that had been! Adventure? Plenty of it. The ship had at last been completely destroyed during a storm. They had barely escaped with their lives. The girl shuddered a little even now at the thought of it. Florence was large, strong, fearless. A marvelous swimmer and a grand athlete, she had little to fear on land or water. And yet, as her eyes swept the deck of the Wanderer, the sixty-foot motor-boat on which she...
