Tim wants to sit before the television and immerse in the world of video games. When Mom and Dad discourage the idea, he tromps down the basement steps to find his imagination secretly awaiting his arrival, in the form of a box. A few toys and supplies are gathered, and stocked inside the box in preparation for a great adventure. Unfortunately, before his imagination can explode into life, he falls asleep. or does he? It is here that our young hero takes us on a journey to the bottom of the sea, races us toward the Moon s dusty core, and carries us to the darkest regions of the jungle, with a little help from friends and the Holy Spirit along the way. Throughout his travels, Tim discovers that he is never truly alone. Under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, adventure can be found anywhere.
