Xulon Press, United States, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .If you have ever imagined inanimate objects thinking and talking like people you will enjoy the raindrops as they have adventures that are as great for them as a trip to the moon would be for you. Their duties are varied, sometimes scary, sometimes rewarding but always supervised by an invisible creator. When I was in Grade One, we sang many little action songs. This little ditty, fanciful though it seems, stuck in my memory all these years. Perhaps that was the spark to this story. The little raindrop soldiers come marching from the sky, In uniforms of silver I see them filing by. Their wee drums beat a rat-tat-tat, rat-tat-tat, rat-tat-tat, Their little feet go rat-tat-tat, Pitter-pitter-pat. I give heartfelt thanks to the unknown author. The Silver Brigade - what an exciting story! One enters into the writer s imagination and begins to see life up there in the clouds and the little people moving between heaven and earth. The story is allegorical and there is meaning behind each person of the Silver Brigade. Not only the children will profit from this lovely wee story. Heidi, Scotland A delightful tale of adventure and misadventure. A story for children of all ages to enjoy. A little bit of everything from mischief to suspense. A great read-aloud. Donna, Librarian, Canada As a teacher the author was always interested in children s literature; reading good books to the class was a pleasure. In course of time she taught in Manitoba; Alberta; Basel, Switzerland; Lome, Togo; Haifa, Israel; and back in Manitoba again. This gave her a great variety of background experience which often came up in her imagination as...
