Kathleen is the founding director of dance at Palm Beach Atlantic University in West Palm Beach, Florida. For the past thirty years, she has also served as the executive director of Klein Dance Inc., which operated a thriving school for dance, a small alternative performing space, and the Demetrius Klein Dance Company. She has also been active in the training of the school's three hundred students and is well known in South Florida for her ability to reach her students' highest potential through discipline, grace, imagination, and accomplishment. She received all of her professional dance training with a multitude of various artists in New England. She was employed by the School of Hartford Ballet in Connecticut while attending a rigorous teacher training program and dancing a demanding performance schedule. She has an extensive background in dance technique, pointe and partnering, ballet theory, kinesiology, dance history, music theory, and most important for her students, child psychology and pedagogy. Prior to her engagement at Palm Beach Atlantic University, Kathleen ran the dance department for Palm Beach Community...
