Payments for expenses of charities, hospitals, and corrections.-The column headings in this division of the table indicate clearly the nature of the payments, except those appearing in the two columns under the heading Other charities. These are chiefly for the care and training of certain classes of defectives and for temporary homes for women and girls. Payments for education.--Of the total payments for education, $223,242,114, or slightly more than 65 per cent, is shown under Apportionments. These amounts represent contributions from State revenues, derived from various sources, to counties, cities, and other minor civil divisions for the support of the public schools, and are based upon school population or average daily attendance. The amounts shown in the column All other, under the heading Schools, include...
