Yang Shen

---

By James Lande

Old China Books. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 556 pages. Dimensions: 8.8in. x 6.0in. x 1.2in. Only one man dared fight to defend Shanghai from rebel hordes - the American adventurer who called up a ragtag band of deserters to defeat armies of thousands. A master in hell before a minion in Heaven. Ill be a prince in China, and lord over these heathen beggars, or Ill make a great many of them wish theyd better joss - better luck - than to cross my bow. Arriving in the midst of the bloodiest civil war in human history, Fletcher Thorson Wood takes up the imperial cause against the Christian rebels, trains and fights beside native Chinese troops, mandarins, and Manilamen, builds the most powerful Army in China, and as reward for his achievements grateful Chinese appoint Fletcher a mandarin of high rank, a general, and even honor him with a temple near Shanghai. Yang Shen makes the reader see, feel, and understand the tumult of 1860s China - the ships and weapons, the countryside with its intricate network of canals, the arcane maneuverings of Chinese politicians and merchants and the equally complex rivalries among the foreign powers, the squalid bars and brothels...
