By Justin Taylor

Helion and Company. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 224 pages. Dimensions: 9.2in. x 6.1in. x 0.6in. This amazing work relates the experiences of Justin Taylor who served as the Signals Officer for the South African Defense Forces infamous 32 Battalion - the Terrible Ones! As a young officer he trained in the intricacies of Signaling before volunteering for Border Duty and service with 32 Battalion - a request that was met with astonishment - you want to work with 32 Battalion! This book takes you into the discipline of military communications as never before, delivering a new perspective on the work of Nine Charlie; the Battalion Signals Officer with his mantra of check, check and recheck! It illustrates how a units Signals Officer sits at the core of military operations, allowing Command elements to control and coordinate war-fighting, whilst countering the never ending failures of equipment and communications. What is more, it emphasizes how the Signals Officer needs to remain abreast of enemy eavesdropping. Little is known of 32 Battalion - a unit that drew its origins from the Angolan Civil War of 1975 - most of its troops were black Portuguese-speaking soldiers; the remnants of Holden Robertos FNLA guerrilla army...
