

Moon Era, The, Revenge of the Robots

By Howard Browne

Armchair Fiction & Music. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 208 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.2in. x 0.7in. Armchair Fiction presents extra large editions of classic science fiction double novels. The first novel The Moon Era is another classic tale by one of the true masters of science fiction, Jack Williamson. He plunged back to a time when the Moon was young. Stephen Conway was a typical, run-of-the-mill high school teacher. He coached the school football team. He led a comfortable but uneventful life. Everything seemed safe, nondescript, but safe. Then one day he was summoned to the home of his uncle, Enfield Conway, a man he had never met, a man of extreme wealth and power. During that meeting Stephen Conway was given the most extraordinary opportunity ever bequeathed from one man to another—the chance to become the first human being to travel into the depths of outer space. His destination—the moon! His uncle's revolutionary new spacecraft was nearly complete. And in return for this adventure, Stephen was to be given a life of wealth and luxury. But there was just one gnawing question: would he be able to come back alive? The second novel is veteran sci-fi writer Howard Browne's Revenge...
